Department of Consumer Protection

What kind of license or registration is a residential UST contractor required to have?

The Department of Consumer Protection (DCP) requires contractors to be registered as Home Improvement Contractors. Contractors must display their registration numbers in all advertising, including advertising on vehicles. A homeowner should check the contractor's registration with the DCP prior to entering into a contract. A licensed plumber must perform any piping installation or replacement.

Home improvement contractors conducting underground storage tank (UST) removal must comply with the following guidelines.

Contractors must provide evidence of liability insurance coverage of one million dollars ($1,000,000) and show evidence of completion of a 40-hour Hazardous Materials Incident Response Operations (HAZOPER) course and eight (8) hours of health and safety training -- 29 CFR 1910.120(e), and passage of the International Code Council Decommissioning Exam.

(Bond requirements set forth in Public Act 04-21 were eliminated in Public Act 09-122.)
